Exciting Opportunities in Elizabeth

Welcome to the City of Elizabeth, a diverse community that combines growth opportunities, access to resources as well as a central location, making it a great place to work and call home. Accessible by a unique intermodal system that includes air, rail, sea and major roadways, New Jersey's fourth largest municipality is both an economic and transportation hub. Our city also contains Terminal A of Newark Liberty International Airport as well as the 2,463-acre Port Elizabeth/Newark Marine Terminal, which is one of the largest container ports in the world and home to one of the nation's leading foreign trade zones. Elizabeth boasts the area's most exciting retail and entertainment opportunities, including New Jersey Turnpike Exit 13A, where you'll find Jersey Gardens, the state's largest outlet mall; a 20-screen AMC Loews Movie Theater; the nation's top-performing IKEA store; a renovated Toys "R" Us/Babies "R" Us superstore; great restaurants; and terrific hotels. From revitalized neighborhoods and renovated business districts to innovative investments and green improvements, the City of Elizabeth continues to make impressive strides. We welcome you and invite you to learn more about why your success starts here in Elizabeth.

Sincerely,
Chris Bollwage, Mayor

Elizabeth's Notable Events

Waterfront Festival (May)

Locals and visitors alike are invited down to the port and waterfront to participate in a variety of games and activities. There will be food tasting, as well as arts and crafts and face painting for kids.

Portugal Day Parade (June)

The Portuguese Day Parade in Elizabeth New Jersey is the oldest running Portuguese Parade in the state of New Jersey. For the past 30 years, each sector of the Portuguese community- organizations, clubs, non-profits and religious institutions come together to commemorate our heritage of distinction. Portugal Day is a cultural revitalization of our community and a demonstration of the force and ambition of our community.

Arts and Music Reception (May and October)

www.elizabethsid.org
The Arts and Music reception is hosted annually by the Midtown SID and the Altenburg Piano House. This event recognizes the talents of local artists and musicians in Elizabeth and surrounding areas.

Holiday Tree Lighting (December)

www.elizabethsid.org
The Holiday Tree Lighting takes place each December in the Train Station Pedestrian Plaza on West Grand Street. The fire department joins the Midtown SID to bring Santa down from high atop the fire truck ladder to light the Midtown Holiday Tree. Children from all over Elizabeth eagerly wait to see Santa and receive a gift and put in their last minute Christmas requests while festive music plays kicking off the holiday season.

Elizabeth Latin Carnival (September)

Thousands are drawn annually to Elizabeth's annual Latin Carnival. The event displays some of Elizabeth's colorful Latin heritage.

Tour de Elizabeth (May)

(photograph above)
A fifteen mile bike ride for all skill levels, which follows a route around the City of Elizabeth, showcasing the many historic downtown, residential neighborhoods, shopping districts, new development, and natural treasures our city has to offer. An average of 500 riders and their families attend the event annually, which attracts both residents and non-residents to the State's 4th largest and most historic City.

Car Show (August)

www.elizabethsid.org
The event attracts participants and spectators from all over New Jersey, as well as other parts of the Tri-State Area. The event continues to grow each year with the continued support of local car owners and sponsoring companies. During the event, participants and visitors enjoy great food, exciting entertainment, a variety of vendors, and participate in activities such as a hula hoop contest and a fan belt toss.

Historical Reenactment (June)

www.elizabethsid.org
Re-enactors from all over the state come to Midtown Elizabeth to recreate a Revolutionary War tactical battle, which includes period clothing and weapons. The Historic Reenactment occurs each year on the front lawn and cemetery of the Historic First Presbyterian Church on Broad Street.

Historical Sites

Historic Walking Tour

www.ucnj.org/cultural
Elizabeth at the Crossroads presents a self-guided walk through the streets of historic mid-town Elizabeth. Forty-five stops allow visitors to linger and experience an era of the city's rich history and development as the permanent seat of government of the County of Union.

Altenburg Piano House

1150 East Jersey St.
(908) 351-2000
The Altenburg Piano House was founded in 1847 and remains the oldest family-run piano business in the United States. Altenburg has established a reputation as the premiere destination for lovers of fine instruments seeking the most reasonable fine piano prices obtainable. The passion for fine pianos and their tradition of personalized service have proven to be Altenburg's most enduring legacies.

Belcher-Ogden Mansion

1046 East Jersey St.
This historic mansion that dates back to the 1600s was once the residence of Royal Governor Jonathan Belcher, who lived there from 1751 to 1757. It was the site of many gatherings of prominent pioneers, including George Whitefield and Jonathan Edwards. Dubbed "the cradle of Princeton University," it also served as the residence of William Peartree Smith and Governor Aaron Ogden.

The Bonnell House

1045 East Jersey St.
Built prior to 1682 by Nathaniel Bonnell, the Bonnell House is believed to be the oldest house in Elizabeth. The two-story clapboard structure was built on 6 acres of land which Bonnell was granted for a homestead.

Boxwood Hall

1073 East Jersey St.
Boxwood Hall was built around 1750 and was the former residence of Elias Boudinot— president of the Continental Congress who signed the treaty of peace with Great Britain at the close of the Revolution. The house later became the home of Jonathan Dayton, the youngest signer of the Constitution. The home is most famous for the visit George Washington paid to his friend Boudinot here in 1789 on his way to New York for his first inauguration.

First Presbyterian Church

42 Broad St.
The First Presbyterian Church was built in 1668 and was the site of an important battleground during the Revolutionary War. The church was the first house of worship in the settlement of Elizabethtown. Burned by British and Loyalist forces in 1780 during the American Revolution, the church was rebuilt in 1786.

Hersh Tower

125 Broad St.
Built during the height of the Depression, the 14-story structure is not only the tallest building in Elizabeth, but also is the highest building in Union County. Built in a historic Art Deco style, the building's façade is made of brick, marble and nickel, and its lobby features marble walls.

St. John's Episcopal Church

61 Broad St.
(908) 352-1218
Founded in 1706, the church is known for its features, including stained glass, rich wood work and a cemetery. St. John's Episcopal Church is known as one of the oldest Episcopal Churches in America. Members of the church's congregation stem from different backgrounds and cultures. St. John's Episcopal Church has a Sunday school and a full Spanish Mass/Eucharist service.

Saint Patrick's Church

215 Court St.
Built in 1887, Saint Patrick's Church is a majestic twin spire structure. Inspired by the Cologne Cathedral in Germany and built using Maine granite, the church has been an architectural marvel in the city for over 100 years.

Arts & Culture

Elizabeth Public Library

11 South Broad St.
(908) 354-6060
www.elizpl.org

After undergoing a host of structural renovations over the past decade, the Elizabeth Public Library stands as a reminder of the generosity of Andrew Carnegie, who donated it to the town of Elizabeth in the early part of the 20th century. The library, which houses a variety of special collections - including those related to business and consumer health—provides Internet service and operates from four locations. Library card holders can go to the facility's Web page, which provides access to a vast number of books, articles, audiovisual media and data.

Union Square

Elizabeth Avenue
www.elizabethavenue.org
Union Square on Elizabeth Avenue is best known for being the site of the Continental Outpost of the battle of June 8, 1780. Five thousand British Regulars arrived in Port Elizabeth and marched down Elizabeth Avenue—known as one of the oldest streets in North America—to attack General Washington and the Continental Army. Fifteen Elizabeth Minutemen, positioned around Union Square, held them off and even wounded their general, Lord Stirling. The Minutemen continued to attack, delaying the British enough for Washington's Army to survive, eventually driving them out of New Jersey. The area is designated by a marker and statue of a Minuteman.

Ritz Theatre

148 East Jersey St.
(908) 351-7575
www.ritztheatre.net

Built in 1926 and known for its Art Deco design, the Ritz Theatre includes seating for 2,772 people. This fully restored facility is one of the largest and oldest fully operational theaters in New Jersey. Over the years, many legendary performers have graced this majestic theater's stage, from the Marx Brothers, George Burns and Jack Benny, to Ray Charles, Harry Chapin, Maya Angelou, Chaka Kahn, Rodney Dangerfield, Miles Davis and many others.

Parks & Recreation

Mattano Park

Accessed at Fifth Avenue and Fifth Street in Elizabeth, Mattano Park offers many recreational opportunities, including ball fields, playgrounds and, in the summer, a water spray for children. Visitors will enjoy nature with beautiful views of green fields and the nearby Elizabeth River.

Veteran's Memorial Waterfront Park

(photograph below)

Fronting on the Kill Van Kull Waterway, this Elizabeth park was dedicated in 1993. It is accessed on the corner of Front Street and Elizabeth Avenue and borders New York Harbor. It features a boardwalk recreation area that contains a fishing pier, tables for chess, bike racks, benches and a city-run marina equipped with slips and dry dock facilities for more than 60 privately owned boats. The annual waterfront festival, held during Memorial Day Weekend, typically draws thousands of visitors from across the region.

Warinanco Park

Sprawling 204 acres, this park is located in Elizabeth, Linden, and Roselle, and was designed by the noted landscape architect Frederick Olmstead—the designer of New York's Central Park. Housing many amenities—including a bicycle path, boating (row boats and pedal boats rented on an hourly basis), skating center, tennis courts, running track, winding trails, ice skating rink, fitness course, football, soccer and baseball fields, kids' playgrounds and a water spray for children in the summer - the park is known for its rich greenery. Towering trees, cherry blossoms that sprout in the spring, azaleas, tulips and magnolias provide a scenic backdrop. The park's biggest attraction is Warinanco Ice Skating Center, which is typically open from October to March each year.
